;NANNIE DOSS: SERIAL KILLER

THE GIGGLING GRANDMA

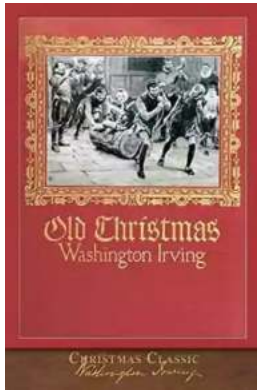

Nannie Doss, born as Nancy Hazle in 1905, spent her life searching for “true love.” She was an avid reader of romance story magazines, She was married five times and when the relationships didn’t go as she dreamed she had a unique way of ending them. Nannie discovered she enjoyed killing and it wasn’t just her husbands who died at her hand. She successfully enjoyed a nearly 30-year murder spree in several U.S states before being brought to justice. Nearly each one of her eleven victims died excruciatingly painful deaths after most of her victims were fed large doses of arsenic.

After her arrest she was nicknamed by the popular media of the time as “Arsenic Annie” and “The Giggling Grandma” because of her apparent amusement of her crimes.
