Discovering the Forbidden Love

Their paths crossed on a moonlit night when Cassandra, wandering through the tranquil woods, encountered Damien. At first sight, their connection was undeniable, a bond that transcended their different worlds. As their love blossomed, the dark forces that governed their realms became aware of the forbidden affair. Soon, a curse was cast upon them, a curse that threatened to tear them apart and end their lives prematurely.

The Cursed Journey Begins

The curse bestowed upon Cassandra and Damien was complex, designed to torment them both physically and emotionally. During the day, Cassandra would be trapped in the form of an owl, forever longing for the night; while Damien, condemned to a human form, was eternally tormented by his desire to become the wolf he once was.

Reviews (may contain spoilers): "The story of the witch and the wolf was a short and sweet one. It reminded me of Romeo and Juliet. They were both married but bound by a curse and the story tells of how the witch tried countless times to free Elias from being bound in a wolf's body. They manage to share some precious moments together, but, like the classic Shakespearean story, that moment was short lived. I can appreciate Julia's depiction of cursed lovers fighting to be together." -

"Thank you to author Julia Pazdro for a copy of this short story for review.

My rating: 4.5 stars.

This story was an enjoyable read. The story of the witch reminded me quite a bit of Romeo and Juliet, with similar themes as the play. The love between the witch and Elias was evident, and was very sweet to read about.

The imagery in this story was another thing that I really enjoyed. I personally love being able to imagine every scene that I read about, and I was easily able to do this. I could clearly imagine the moonlight, the forest, river, etc.

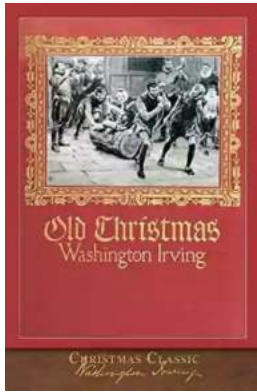

I think the story would have been even better had there been more developed characters and had more background information been given on the relationships of the characters. However, since it was a short story, I do realize that it may be difficult to incorporate all of this, and believe that it was well written nevertheless.

The story is perfect if you love short romances, and all in all, I enjoyed reading about the witch and the wolf" - Life of a Writer Blog, B.R.A.I Blog.
