□ □ □ □ □ HE NEEDS A RIDE. HE GETS TROUBLE INSTEAD. □ □ □ □ □

Seth Lorcan thrives on undercover work for the FBI. He's damned good at it, too. When his latest assignment goes horribly south—making him a target for both the bad guys and the good—he skates dangerously close to the edge of losing it all.

One wrong move and not only does he lose his position with the FBI, he might just end up dead. What he needs is a ride out of the PAVAD building before he's discovered—even if he has to take it.

Carjacking is his only real option. He just needs a handy victim...

FBI agent Alessandra Brockman has just wrapped up a serial killer case where she had to act as the bait for a madman. Now all she wants is to find her car and go home. When she sees a man trying to take her friend Carrie's car—at gunpoint—Al's plans change in a hurry.

No way was she going to let Carrie get hurt. Alessandra confronts the carjacker. Only to realize one thing...

He shares the same face as her supervisor—but it isn't Sebastian Lorcan standing there with a weapon pointed right at her.

Seth now has double the trouble on his hands, but he's always been a man of action. He has to get out of St. Louis fast—and he doesn't have time to deal with the two women standing in his way. The only choice he has is to take them both. But he gets far more than he bargains for when he takes Alessandra Brockman hostage.

Al won't let him hurt her or anyone else. Especially when she realizes just exactly who Seth is, and that someone in the FBI is out to kill him.

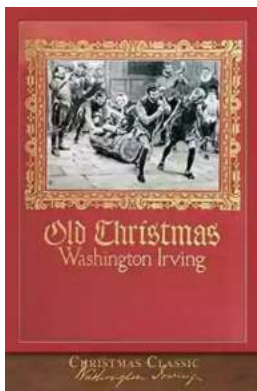

And anyone who gets in the way...
