Book 7 – Heidi

If I lived in a romance novel, I'd be having fun right now. Hope McConnell: Her battle with her ex Parker Dawson seems never ending!

If I lived in a romance novel, I'd be having fun right now. I'd be surrounded by family and friends laughing and swooning over fancy dresses and delicious three layer wedding cakes. But my life is NOT a happily ever after novel. No siree, my life is real and complicated and sometimes down right disappointing. I recently opened a whole can of worms for the Harris family and now they're distancing themselves from me and my upcoming wedding to Cole.

I don't want to say I'm jinxed when it comes to men, but I do seem to attract soap opera type drama into my life. Never a dull moment when it comes to my love life, that's for sure.

For Hope, it is time to get on with her life!

Heidi Booth: The decade of 1950's America is filled with promise and possibilities. Except Heidi doesn't quite agree that her life is so promising or hopeful.

You know what? Real life is not like my childhood fantasy. Real life is complicated, unpredictable, and often times terrifying. Right now, at twenty-four years old, I am going through one the most complicated, unpredictable, and terrifying times I've ever faced. I have decisions to make – difficult decisions that will change everything in my life.

For Heidi, it is time stop doubting and start doing!

Book 8 - Susan

Victory isn't always about finishing first...Hope: I've started campaigning for the office I'm currently holding, District Attorney of Crystal Falls, Nebraska. I've never campaigned for anything in my life. I'm like a duck out of water and sometimes I feel like I'm drowning. I'm overwhelmed with meetings, speeches, and press releases. My opponent is out for blood – my blood. I'm not giving up and I'm not getting discouraged. I'm stronger than my fears.

Susan: What's this new 1970's mumble-jumble about when life hands you lemons, make lemonade. Well, right now my life is filled with bushels of lemons and I'm looking for that elusive lemonade recipe. Sure, I sing "I am woman" right along with Helen Reddy and subscribe to Ms. Magazine, but I've come to realize my life is at a personal and professional crossroads. I am not a complainer – I am a doer and I'm ready to shake things up.
