Callum

When I move to a small town from the big city, my plans are simple. Get my co-owned coffee shop off the ground and work on my baggage. Alone. My plans are shot to hell when wealthy frat brat Ashton Keyes stumbles into Cafe Crave. Drunk. That's all the warning sign I need to stay away from the self-destructive boy. But he's everything the Daddy in me craves and I can't walk away.

Ashton

Everything hurts. The lies. The perfect image. The fake smile. Only when I'm drunk do I find relief. Until the night I meet Daddy Callum and decide he's mine. But, he has strict rules for us to be together, and his punishment is unlike anything I'd ever experienced. Is it enough to keep the darkness at bay, or is it too late to be saved?
